

Jackie Dodds

Jackie Dodds is a New York-based dancer and choreographer. An alumna of Shoreline Dance Academy (2019), she earned her BFA in Dance Performance and Choreography from East Carolina University (2023). She specializes in contemporary and jazz. Most recently she performed works by Tanner Lane. Inspired by David Dorfman Dance, Jackie brings an investigative and expressive approach to movement. She has studied abroad in Amsterdam and Kenya, and in November 2024, she traveled solo through four European countries, developing a new solo work that premiered in June 2025. She is grateful for the diverse experiences that continue to shape her artistic voice.
