

Chelsea Arensdorf

Chelsea attended Jacksonville University and graduated cumlaude with a BFA in dance. Throughout her years at JU, she worked with choreographers such as David Parsons and Take Ueyama. She also got the chance to perform at the prestigious White Oak Plantation! After graduation, Chelsea had a few performance opportunities with Naganuma Dance and BodyStories. She's been teaching and choreographing here at Shoreline since 2011, and has been recognized and awarded at multiple competitions for her work.
